

Issa Longhorn

Austin, TX 78731 | (512) 555-1234 | longhorn@austin.edu

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Communication

University of Missouri

Columbia, Missouri

GPA: 3.8

Anticipated Graduation Date: May 2010

WORK EXPERIENCE

AmeriCorps Member

Columbia, Missouri

Jumpstart

April 2008 – Present

- Implemented early childhood curriculum to individually tutor preschool student for 4 hours weekly to foster language, literacy, and social skills
- Communicated bi-weekly with partner child's family regarding child's progression, applied strategies, and any behavioral or learning setbacks
- Collaborated with both the classroom teacher and Jumpstart Team Leaders regarding lessons, learning initiatives, and child interactions
- Teamed with 10 members to organize weekly meetings, which include planning, reflection, and specialized training
- Completed 300 hours of service per year in intensive early childhood theory training, tutoring, planning meetings, and curriculum development

Staff Assistant

Columbia, Missouri

Boy's & Girl's Club

October 2007 – March 2008

- Supervised the delivery of youth services and programs for over 250 children, including basketball tournaments, arts and crafts projects, and field trips to educational facilities
- Planned, developed and managed programs focused on physical education
- Trained 15 new personnel members on programming, medical emergency response, and handling discipline issues among youth

ACTIVITIES

Secretary

September 2008-Present

Missouri Students Association (MSA)

- Documented meetings and produced correspondence for all weekly meetings

Community Service Chair

September 2007-May 2008

Alpha Phi Alpha Sorority

- Planned, implemented and participated in community service programs for the chapter

Member

January 2007-May 2008

Building Opportunities for Leadership Development (BOLD)

- Promoted leadership development and fellowship for MU students through workshops, events, and direct marketing